INSTRUCTIONS

- Students who are enrolled in a degree program in the Division of the Social Sciences and who wish to be considered for financial aid for 2009-2010, including renewal of an existing award, must complete this application form and return it to the Dean of Students by February 27, 2009.
- Students should make arrangements to remove any incompletes from their transcripts. First-year students in particular should note that quality grades (not P or R) are expected. At minimum, five of the quality grades from Autumn and Winter Quarters must be posted in advance of the spring divisional performance review for the application to be considered. The aid decision remains provisional until additional quality grades for Spring Quarter are posted.
- Students receiving financial aid are expected to 1) be on campus three quarters during the year, 2) maintain full-time registration, and 3) devote full time to their graduate studies.
- Students in Advanced Residence are not eligible for divisional aid, unless otherwise provided by their current award.
