Please indicate which courses you have taken/intend to take toward the minor. Courses may be changed as needed until your final quarter/graduation quarter. Please keep the following items in mind as you go through your course plan:

- Courses may not be double counted with majors, other minors, or core requirements.
- Courses must be taken for quality grades.
- Only university-level courses offered by the University of Chicago may be approved for the minor's requirements; no other form of credit (including Advanced Placement) is allowed.
- Students who take CHDV 20100 for the Comparative Human Development Major should plan to take an alternative approved course (see approved listings).
